Dear Cousins:

Perhaps your father told you we are in the process of preparing the manuscript for Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America.

Enclosed is a family record sheet. Please fill this out and return it to me. Also, fill out a brief biography of yourself and spouse as suggested.

Since you were born a Merwin, you will be included in Volume III even though you are not a member of our Association. However, we would welcome you as a member and appreciate your help in completing this expensive task. A dues form is enclosed for your convenience.

I have met you father once, and knew you grandparents quite well from meeting them at reunions.

Please reply promptly since we are closing in on our deadline for publishing.

Best regards,

Merwyn

SARAH CAROLINE (MERWIN) WELLS

Sarah Caroline (Merwin) Wells, daughter of Talcott H. Merwin and Phebe Teed, crocheted this bedspread for William Jennings Bryan ca. 1912 when Bryan was Secretary of State (1912-15) under President Woodrow Wilson. Bryan was from Nebraska, where Sarah and her husband, Henry Clay Wells, became friends with him. Henry served in the Nebraska legislature from Franklin Co., Nebraska in 1881, and he died 21 June 1890, age 63, at Beatrice, Nebraska. Sarah survived him and died 17 October 1926 while visiting at the home of her daughter Hattie (Wells) Florey in Exeter, Missouri, age 89. She would have been about age 75 when she made the bedspread.

Dear Merwyn:

The book, Vol. I of MERWIN FAMILY IN NORTH AMERICA, has arrived, and I am not only delighted with it but astounded at it's size! It is full of wonderful information on the various Merwins.

I hesitate to point it out, but I did find an error - on p. 205 - #1349 - Talcott Merwin was b. 1796 instead of 1769 - am sure this was just a typographical error.

I'm enclosing group sheets on Daniel (6) Merwin as well as for Talcott H. (7) Merwin and his daughter Sarah Caroline (8) Merwin, which I copied off for you.

I am not certain that Daniel and Sarah Guthrie were married at Claverack, Columbia Co., N.Y., since Sarah lived at Jericho, Chenango Co., N.Y. - do you have proof of where this marriage took place? I've never found such proof.

Also, as noted on FGS for Talcott Merwin (I have never learned what the middle initial H. stands for, by the way), I am sure the Emily Eliza mentioned in the book as his child was actually his daughter-in-law Emily Eliza Beach. If you will note the similarity in dates, and also because there has been no mention in any of the family's papers of this daughter Emily Eliza - only as the son's wife. If you have something to prove me wrong, I'd really like to know about it!

Thank you so much for suggesting my purchase of the book. I am really delighted with it!

Sincerely,

Lura

P.S. I have just located my negative of a picture of Sarah Caroline Merwin Wells with a bedspread she crocheted for William Jennings Bryan, V-P of the U.S. If you would like a copy of this picture, let me know and I'll send you one. I have no date for this picture, but she appears to be in her later years.

I'm enclosing group sheets on Daniel (6) Merwin as well as for Talcott H. (7) Merwin and his daughter Sarah Dorothea (8) Merwin, which I copied off for you.

I am not certain that Daniel and Sarah Guthrie were married at Cleaveack, Columbia Co., N.Y., since Sarah lived at Jericho, Chenango Co., N.Y. - do you have proof of this marriage took place? I've never found such proof.

Also, as noted on p66 for Talcott Merwin (I have never found what the middle initial H. stands for, by the way), I'm sure the Emily Miles mentioned in the book as his wife is actually his daughter-in-law Emily Miles Beach. If you have note the similarity in dates, and also because there has been no mention in any of the family's papers of this Emily Miles - only as the son's wife. If you have some proof to prove me wrong, I'd really like to know about it!

Thank you so much for suggesting my purchase of the book. I am really delighted with it!

Sincerely,

Imra M. Wade

P.S. I have just located my negative of a picture of Caroline Merwin Wells with a bedspread she crocheted for William Jennings Bryan, V-P of the U.S. You would like a copy of this picture, let me know and I'll send you one. I have no date for this picture, but she appears to be in her later years.

Dear Chris:

Many thanks for your holiday newsletter. It was interesting. You did have some exciting times.

I am glad to hear your Dad recovered from his cataract operation. I have had one done and I think the other needs to be done. Old age is mind over matter. If you don't mind, it don't matter.

I can understand how John felt parting ways with his employer. It happened to me in 1963 when I was working for Honeywell. It took some time to get established again, but we made it.

I appreciate your Dad's addresses. We do not carry two addresses for the snow birds. I shall set up his Canfield address as official. If he would rather we would use the Florida address, he can let us know.

Betty and I are getting along. Fighting those chronic ills is a constant pain. It will be great to see you and John in Toronto.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Merwyn:

I know from the Merwin Association minutes that you and Betty were having some health problems. I hope you are now both much better and back to your usual activities.

To update you a bit on what '97 was like for us, I'm enclosing a copy of our holiday newsletter. Thank heaven, things have settled down and we're considerably more optimistic about the year ahead.

For the Association records, Dad's address for mid-May to mid-October is:

Walter S. Merwin
Sea Villas #A-4
1205 Tarpon Center Road
Venice, FL 34285

And from mid-May to October:

10-3 Newton Square
Canfield, OH 44406

John and I plan to attend the reunion in Toronto in June, and hope Dad will come with us.

Fond regards to you and Betty,

Chris

JANUARY 1998

HAPPY NEW YEAR !

A one word summary of our l997 - PHEW!

It started back in March in the car on the way to the Columbus airport to meet Pam, Jeff, and Nicholas for a family visit trip to Dallas when Pam called to say they'd just been told she was carrying TWINS and should not fly any where. So the rest of us celebrated Nick's second birthday and Easter in Dallas without the Browns.

Luck was with us in April when we made a safe "adventure travel" trip to Egypt with our good friends Kay and John Nierlich and 12 other compatible souls and an outstanding (and very good looking) guide with a Ph.D. in Egyptology.

While we were in Germany early September attending a trade show, the twins got in serious trouble with a twin-to-twin transfusion and were delivered two months early weighing in at 3 lbs 7 1/2 oz. (Abby) and 2 lbs 10 1/2 oz (Emma). They spent three and five weeks, respectively, at Ohio State University Medical Center's neonatal i.c.u. before coming home on oxygen and apnea monitors. Now, four months later, along with golden grandson Nicholas, Pam and Jeff have two, healthy, growing, beautiful baby girls!

Bethe, thank heaven, is doing fine in Dallas. She's finishing up her master's in library science so this will be her last year as a bilingual teacher as she plans to get a position, again in the Dallas public school system, as a school librarian. She is also one, terrific aunt!

In September and October we saw Dad through double cataract surgery in the Buffalo area. He was in Canfield with us awaiting his new glasses when John, on the advice of his attorney, cleared out his desk at Steel City. We spent a very difficult, uncertain couple of weeks while John and Steel City came to an official agreement to part ways. Since then, John has been working only out of his home office (read between the lines and that's breakfast, LUNCH, and dinner) and consulting for Steel City until the end of this month when he will be totally out of the company after 27 years. "Retirement" has come earlier than we anticipated, but John is fully and optimistically launched in his new business, Lehman/Gundel Marketing Group, representing unique, quality E.U. manufacturers to the North American market.

Then, just to be sure the stress level was maintained, Dad's house sold in November, and we got to break up Chris' childhood home and Dad's residence of almost 50 years. The Saturday before Christmas Dad's furniture was delivered to his condo in Canfield which is just a bit over a mile from us! It will be an interesting transition for all of us when Dad gets in residence sometime in May. Until then he's "roughing it" in Florida.

Needless to say, we are looking forward to a calmer l998 and feel cautiously optimistic about the changes we're making.

Best of all, we're blessed with good health, each other, and wonderful family and friends!

Dear Chris:

I thank you for your letter dated 7 April and your kind thoughts about my efforts.

Congratulations to you and John on the birth of a grandson! You must not feel that Nicholas has no place in the Merwin records. My normal practice is to show in the genealogy children of a spouse by a former marriage. Although the child is not numbered, he is listed so that the record is clear to later generation of a family. Also, I would be pleased to include a birth notice of Nicholas in Milestones. To do so, I need the full name of his parents including the mother's maiden name and where the child was born. O.K.?

Speaking of grandchildren, Betty and I sat through a four hour recital at a nearby church yesterday. Our grandaughter, Rustie, is learning to play the piano and she was in the recital. Quite an ordeal, but we did our duty.

We are pleased to hear your dad is doing well. Must be a difficult adjustment when you lose a spouse

7 April 1995

Dear Charles and Merwyn,

With this year's change in plans, aren't we glad we have our good memories of reunion '94 to carry us over!

I can well imagine the "discussions" that were undertaken before the decision was reached to cancel the July annual reunion; I feel most fortunate not to have had to participate!

Let me know if, when, and where the Directors will meet this summer, and I'll try to be there.

The big news in our life is that we became grandparents on March 28th! Pam and Jeff had a 5 lb. 8 oz. baby boy at 2:15 p.m. and by 6:45 that same evening John had left work, we'd thrown a few things in an overnight bag, had driven 175 miles (many on winding, back roads), and had St. Nick in our arms! It's wonderful! We are the proverbial sappy grandparents and drove back down 5 days later to make sure Nicholas Ryan was as perfect as we remembered and was being well cared for by his parents. My ONLY regret is in being unable to document him in my Merwin history.

Otherwise, all pretty routine. Dad (Walter S.) will be returning north in a little over a week having spent since October in Florida. I can happily report he's (knock on wood) doing terrifically well and has made great strides in adjusting to life alone; we are very fortunate.

Please keep us in mind should something bring you to Ohio this summer; we welcome visitors.

It's nice to know MMA is in such good hands as yours and will survive even without an annual reunion.

Regards from John and me to both of you and your Bettys.

Chris

When peace was declared, he returned to work in the Wilde mills, and after the death of Mr. Wilde in 1872 he was employed as a warper in the mill of Richard Thatcher. He remained here until five years later, when the mill was destroyed by fire. In 1877, he obtained employment with Thomas Hughes & Co. at Hulmeville, Bucks County, PA, which mill he and Albert Thatcher later bought. They commenced business in Oct, 1877. In 1881, the mill on the Brandywine at Henry Clay, Delaware, was rented from the Du Ponts, and in August of that year Barlow and Thatcher commenced business in Henry Clay. Jacob Barlow moved to Henry Clay where he lived in one of the houses attached to the mill. His wife died in 1887 and after that his sister, Ann Barlow Brooks, with her two daughters, Elizabeth and Emma, came to live with him and kept house for him for many years. In 1888, the business was incorporated as the Barlow and Thatcher Spinning Co., with Jacob Barlow as president. On 1 Mar 1892, a new mill at Piedmont, Alabama, was opened, under the name of Coosa Manufacturing Co. In 1897, the spinning of cotton yarn at Henry Clay, DE, was discontinued and the mill merged with the one in the south. In 1898, after the sale of the machinery in the Delaware mill, Jacob Barlow retired from active business and moved to Darby, PA. He was, however, a member of the board of the Coosa Manufacturing Co., until his death. In 1904, after his marriage to Sara Elizabeth Buchanan, he moved to Germantown, Philadelphia.

Jacob Barlow applied for and received a government pension 28 Aug 1905 on the basis of his military service.

In 1900 [2] Jacob Barlow was a widower living with his widowed sister, Ann Brooks, and his niece, Elizabeth Brooks, in Colwyn, Delaware County, PA. Elizabeth is the Elizabeth Brooks who later married William James Witter [11], Sara Elizabeth Buchanan's uncle.

Apparently, he failed to report back to the hospital at the expiration of his leave because, on 7 Dec 1862, the records state he deserted from Carver Hospital. In May 1863, he was "taken up from desertion, absent sick, in Pa." On 1 Jul 1863, J D was transferred to 1st Company, 2nd Battalion, Invalid Corps at Alexandria, VA. He apparently continued to suffer from intermittent fever and his wound until June 1864. On 10 Sep 1864, he was mustered out of service at Philadelphia with his old outfit, Company I, 106th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers.

J D's failure to return to Carver Hospital at the expiration of his furlough was termed "desertion" on his record. However, this was apparently not considered extremely serious since he was not demoted, he was honorably discharged and he later received a pension.

We do not know the date of his marriage to Margaret. It must have been in the year 1836 or 1837 since their first child, Mary, was born in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA, on 28 Feb 1838. J.D. was apparently twenty years old and Margaret Humes was about six years his senior at the time of their marriage.

James D and Margaret (Humes) Witter had eight children, all of whom were b. in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA [6]:

2. Mary (2) Witter b. 28 Feb 1838; d. 12 Mar 1838 in Darby
3. Richard (2) Witter b. 27 Feb 1839; d. 10 March 1839 in Darby
+4. Catherine (2) Witter b. 27 Feb 1840
+5. Susan (2) Witter b. 23 May 1841
+6. Margaret (2) Witter b. 11 Feb 1843
+7. William James (2) Witter b. 12 Feb 1845
8. Caleb A. (2) Witter b. 18 Jan 1847; d. 15 May 1847 in Darby
9. John B. (2) Witter b. 16 Dec 1852; d. 17 May 1866 in Jefferson Township, Washington County, IN.

J D and his wife; dau. Margaret together with her husband Wash Rively and their two eldest children; and sons William James and John B. Witter removed to Salem, Washington County, IN, in Feb 1865. We do not know why they chose to migrate to that particular place except that area of Salem, IN, was the center of a significant Quaker settlement and the Witters were Quakers. By deed dated 11 February 1865, J D purchased the Southwest quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section thirty-four in Township Three North of Range Three East. This was located in Jefferson Township, Washington County, IN. J D purchased the property from one John Attmore "late of the county of Washington in the State of Indiana now of the county of Delaware in the State of Pennsylvania". Accordingly, John Attmore apparently removed from Indiana to Delaware County,Pennsylvania, and then sold his property in Indiana to J D. The entire transaction took place in Philadelphia, and the deed was subsequently recorded (20 May 1865) in Washington County, IN. J D paid six hundred dollars for the property which consisted of forty acres of land together with buildings [7].

His daughter, Margaret Witter Rively, and son, William James

Michael Joseph Di Chiara was born to Frederick J. Di Chiara Jr. & Cynthia Di Chiara, July 8th, 1997.

Deborah Anne Di Chiara married Brian Wilson July 19th, 1997. They live in Chesterfield, N.J.

Dear Merwyns, (6395)

Enclosed please find the two photos I promised you - if it is too late I'll understand, we've had a very tough week (the loss of a young friend in a tragic accident) and I'm just getting to them. I also took a brief sojourn (too brief) to Fripp Island to visit with my family. Picture #1, b of les - L to R. Deborah PARRISH/Merwin, Edwin Merwin JR, Frederick DiChiara, Harriet Merwin DiChiara, Edwin Merwin + Florence Merwin in Rome, ITALY celebrating the Ed Merwins 50th Wedding Anniv. last year. a 2½ week trip hosted by the Edwin Merwins for their children covered Rome, Paris, London + the southern English countryside - An unforgettable time was had by all - Echos of "We shall return some day soon!"

Picture #2 is of the DiChiara/Merwin clan, Joseph is my husbands brother, his wife Sharon + 2 children Kim + Mark - Aside from Mom + Dad DiChiara

Mrs. Frederick John DeChiaro

P.S. Kathy Meuse (Pete + Fern's daughter) was the maid of honor & Fred's brother was the best man!

(Fred + Joe's parents) all others are Mervins well except Fred + he is good enough to be one ☺ - The occasion was a celebration - Deborah graduated H.S. + is attending Ursinus College, Fred Jr graduated Susquehanna Univ + will attend Villanova Grad school in fall - + Fred + I on June 19th were married 25 years! Approx 110 family members + close friends joined us in England to celebrate this joyous time in our lives! Any questions please call me - I hope this is helpful,

Fondly, Janet + Mervin DeChiaro

Dear Cousin:

As you know, I have been working for the better part of two years to research, correspond and prepare the manuscript of Descendants of James D & Margaret (Humes) Witter. I am happy to say the work is now finished.

Since I contributed my labor and paid all expenses up to this point, I feel that my cousins who wish to have a copy or copies of the book should bear the cost of having the book printed. Below is a tear off form which you may use to order a copy or copies for you and your family. The price of $9.50 is a pre-publication price and it is available only until September 15th. Orders received after that date will be $12.50 a copy.

I believe you will appreciate this history of our family. Every effort has been made to be certain that the information presented is accurate and factual. The book contains eithteen pictures on fifteen pages. There are a total of over one hundred pages (8-1/2" x 11") and they cover seven generations from our immigrant ancestors.

This is the only printing that will be made. Suggest you purchase one for each of your children and grandchildren.

Best regards,

Merwyn R. Buchanan

Dear Harriet:

Thank you for your prompt reply to my recent letter.

Would you please give me your daughter Laura's address so that I may write her for information for her family entry?

Yes, I remember Warren at Howard Johnson's three years ago. He came into the dining room and told me he had married a Merwin, and, before I could get specifics from him, he was gone. My impression was that he was a clean-cut young man. I did enjoy meeting him.

Are either Frederick or Deborah married? If so, I would appreciate their addresses.

Best regards,

+28. Anna Belle (3) Witter b. 21 May 1881
+29. Grace Idola (3) Witter b. 30 Jan 1885

William James Witter was a farmer. He emigrated to Salem, IN, in Feb 1865 when he was twenty years of age with his parents, brother John, sister Margaret and her husband, Wash Rively, and the two oldest Rively children.

After his wife, Maggie, died in 1909, William James Witter met and mar. (2nd), as her first husband, Elizabeth Brooks b. 8 Apr 1844 in England; d. 27 Dec 1922 of bronchial pneumonia while residing at 4617 Wayne Avenue (22nd Ward), Philadelphia, PA; bur. 29 Dec 1922 in Fernwood Cem., Fernwood, Delaware County, PA, a dau. of James & Ann (Barlow) Brooks. Elizabeth Brooks Witter was a niece of Jacob Barlow, the husband of Sara (Buchanan) Barlow (#14).

William James Witter and Elizabeth Brooks were mar. 11 Jan 1910 by one Boudinot Seeley, Jr., in Germantown, Philadelphia, PA. The marriage license states that he was living at 876 Haddon Avenue, Camden, NJ, and that she resided at 6503 Chew Street, Germantown, Philadelphia, PA, the home of Jacob & Sara (Buchanan) Barlow.

William James Witter and his family were Quakers.

William James Witter, at eighteen years of age, ran away from home and joined Company H, 29th Pennsylvania Volunteer Militia where he served from 18 Jun 1863 to 1 Aug 1863 when his father, who knew first hand the reality of war, went after him and brought him back home. He ran away again and succeeded in enlisting. He joined up on 16 Jul 1864 and was mustered in on 22 Jul 1864 as a private in Company B, 197 Regiment Pennsylvania Infantry at Philadelphia, PA, for a period of one hundred days. It is said that he spent his time in service as a guard over Rebel prisoners. His records in the National Archives [18] do not

Dear Cousin:

Enclosed is a draft of your family entry for Volume III of The Merwin Family in North America.

Will you please give me any additions or corrections which may be necessary?

It was a pleasure talking to you on the phone. As a person born a Merwin, there is no obligation to belong to our organization to be "in the book". However, we would be pleased to have you join us and support our efforts. Enclosed is the latest issue of Milestones to give you an idea of our activities. Our newsletter is published three times a year. To join, just send me a check for $10 annual dues payable to Miles Merwin Assn. Notice we are having a reunion on June 25th at Milford, CT. Would be pleased to meet you there.

Battalion, Invalid Corps at Alexandria, VA. He apparently continued to suffer from intermittent fever and his wound until June 1864. On 10 Sep 1864, he was mustered out of service at Philadelphia with his old outfit, Company I, 106th Regiment, Pennsyvania Volunteers.

J D's failure to return to Carver Hospital at the expiration of his furlough was termed "desertion" on his record. However, this was apparently not considered extremely serious since he was not demoted, he was honorably discharged and he later received a pension.

We do not know the date of his marriage to Margaret. It must have been in the year 1836 or 1837 since their first child, Mary, was born in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA, on 28 Feb 1838. J.D. was apparently twenty years old and Margaret Humes was about six years his senior at the time of their marriage.

James D and Margaret (Humes) Witter had eight children, all of whom were b. in Darby Township, Delaware County, PA [6]:

2. Mary (2) Witter b. 28 Feb 1838; d. 12 Mar 1838 in Darby
3. Richard (2) Witter b. 27 Feb 1839; d. 10 March 1839 in Darby
+4. Catherine (2) Witter b. 27 Feb 1840
+5. Susan (2) Witter b. 23 May 1841
+6, Margaret (2) Witter b. 11 Feb 1843
+7. William James (2) Witter b. 12 Feb 1845
8. Caleb A. (2) Witter b. 18 Jan 1847; d. 15 May 1847 in Darby
9. John B. (2) Witter b. 16 Dec 1852; d. 17 May 1866 in Jefferson Township, Washington County, IN.

J D and his wife; dau. Margaret together with her husband Wash Rively and their two eldest children; and sons William James and John B. Witter removed to Salem, Washington County, IN, in Feb 1865. We do not know why they chose to migrate to that particular place except that area of Salem, IN, was the center of a significant Quaker settlement and the Witters were Quakers. By deed dated 11 February 1865, J D purchased the Southwest quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section thirty-four in Township Three North of Range Three East. This was located in Jefferson Township, Washington County, IN. J D purchased the property from one John Attmore "late of the county of Washington in the State of Indiana now of the county of Delaware in the State of Pennsylania". Accordingly, John Attmore apparently removed from Indiana to Delaware County, Pennsylvania and then sold his property in Indiana to J D. The entire transaction took place in Philadelphia, and the deed was subsequently recorded (20 May 1865) in Washington County, IN. J D paid six hundred dollars for the property which consisted of forty acres of land together with buildings [7].

His daughter, Margaret Witter Rively, and son, William James Witter, settled there and remained. The U.S. Census of 1870 for Salem, Washington County, IN, shows William James residing with the Thomas & Julielma Morris family. Their dau., Margaret, was William James Witter's wife. The record shows that their son, Charles Thomas Witter, was eight months old at that time. The same census shows Maggie and Wash Rively and their four children living in the same area.

Catherine and Susan Witter, the other two living children of J D and

Dear Cousin Catherine:

Last August I sent you a draft of your family entry (see copy enclosed). Then my files got a bit confused and I wrote you on Nov. 4, 1980 asking your "connection" to the Merwins. I even phoned you on Feb. 15th and asked you husband to ask you to write without realizing who you were.

Today, I finally located your file. Please accept my apology for being so stupid.

Your reply will be most welcome and I promise not to "lose" you again.
